 - Is the procedure formal or informal?
 - Describe the general guidelines of the procedure.
 - Who is responsible for handling complaints dealing with sportsmanship, ethics and integrity?
 - Cite examples of how complaints were handled.

7. Plan for dealing with special situations such as heated rivalries, overflow crowds and unruly spectators.
 - Who is responsible for implementing the plan?
 - Are visiting schools involved in the plan?
 - Cite any special situations and how the school responded to them.
 8. A program for acknowledging/rewarding positive examples of sportsmanship, ethics and integrity.
 - Does the conference sponsor any sportsmanship awards?
 - How do school administrators and the board of education recognize positive examples of sportsmanship, ethics and integrity?
 - How do you publicize positive examples of sportsmanship, ethics and integrity?
 - How are athletes, coaches and spectators recognized for positive examples of sportsmanship, ethics and integrity?
 9. A quantitative review of sportsmanship related incidents involving the school.
 - Identify chronologically any negative sportsmanship-related incidents involving athletes, coaches and/or spectators; e.g. game ejections.
 - How were each of the incidents handled?
 - Identify chronologically any positive sportsmanship-related incidents involving athletes, coaches, and/or spectators; e.g. officials' association award, letters from opposing coaches, etc.
- Note: Negative sportsmanship-related incidents will not disqualify a school from consideration. However, the number, nature, and manner in which they were handled will be seriously considered.
10. Recent sportsmanship initiatives.
 - Identify the significant changes, improvements, or modifications in the sportsmanship, ethics and integrity program during the past school year.

EVALUATION CRITERIA

- A. The DIAA Sportsmanship Award is not a competitive award. By satisfying the requirements of the program, every middle school and high school in Delaware can qualify for this prestigious award. The DIAA Sportsmanship Committee is asking that every school enthusiastically endorse the program and make a concerted effort to qualify for the award.
- B. Selection will be made by a portfolio evaluation committee comprised of members of the DIAA Sportsmanship Committee and selected members of the media.
- C. The selection committee will seek input from the officials associations in each sport and the athletic directors.
- D. The deadline for submitting an application will be July 1. All recipients will be informed by August 16 and the awards will be presented at the start of the following school year.
- E. All DIAA member schools are eligible to receive the award annually.
