

Resource 1: Fake Excerpts from Fake Books Published Recently about President Lincoln

Read these aloud to students.

Account from Book 1 (written in 2022)

On June 16, 1864, President Abraham Lincoln's train stopped in Wilmington, Delaware where he took time to shake hands with his many admirers.

Account from Book 2 (written in 2021)

In June of 1864 President Lincoln visited Wilmington on his way to a fair in Philadelphia. The people of Wilmington were very disappointed because the President did not stop the train to meet or speak with the people who came to see him.