 The full time dean of students will oversee the implementation of CREW, our SEL curriculum and ensure that low income and EL students who are referred for character development receive support as needed. The dean of students works with counseling and behavior staff to develop student support plans to ensure all students are receiving support in SEL goals

Expected outcomes:

- No more than 10% of the low income and EL student population will be suspended.
- At least 85% of low income and EL students will agree or strongly agree via survey that their teacher knows their strengths, weaknesses and interests.

At least 75% of low income and EL students will be proficient on Kuumba's Nguzo Saba {Kuumba, Umoja, Kujichagulia, Ujima, Ujamaa, Nia, Imani} as measured by report card competencies.

The behavior interventionist works with the deans to implement student success plans and character development lessons. The BI tracks student progress and helps to revise student support plans as needed based on progress made during the course of the school year.

Expected outcomes:

- No more than 10% of the low income and EL student population will be suspended.
- At least 85% of low income and EL students will agree or strongly agree via survey that their teacher knows their strengths, weaknesses and interests.

At least 75% of low income and EL students will be proficient on Kuumba's Nguzo Saba {Kuumba, Umoja, Kujichagulia, Ujima, Ujamaa, Nia, Imani} as measured by report card competencies.

The school guidance counselor will ensure all students receive direct counseling services as needed, align families with additional outside counseling as needed and lead school wide efforts around mindfulness

Expected outcomes:

- No more than 10% of the low income and EL student population will be suspended.
- At least 85% of low income and EL students will agree or strongly agree via survey that their teacher knows their strengths, weaknesses and interests.
